Dear EPO-TEK[®] Product Customer:

I am the General Manager and General Counsel of Epoxy Technology, Inc., the manufacturer of EPO-TEK[®] products. For many years, Promatech, based in Gloucestershire, England, served as the distributor for EPO-TEK[®] products in the United Kingdom and Ireland. Please be advised that this arrangement has been terminated effective November 25, 2008 and Promatech is no longer authorized to distribute any EPO-TEK[®] products following that date.

Epoxy Technology's new authorized distributor for the United Kingdom is John P Kummer Limited (JP Kummer), located in Marlborough, England. The Director, Rex Sandbach, will be happy to assist any customer in the United Kingdom and Ireland with regard to purchasing any EPO-TEK[®] products. JP Kummer enjoys the full support of Epoxy Technology, Inc., including its technical service and customer assistance. We appreciate our customers in the United Kingdom and Ireland for purchasing EPO-TEK[®] materials and encourage you to work through JP Kummer to meet your specialty adhesive needs.

Very truly yours,
